Start: 9am - Date: Saturday 23 October 2010

Entry details for Participants (Labour Weekend)

This 26.4km flat ride has been introduced for individual participants only, to complement the main event of the day the 204km GWAloop Challenge. (NO teams in this event.)

The Logan Print Mini-Loop is designed for those who cannot or choose not to participate in the main event but would like to be part of day. This course is for ages 13 and over.

Start on the main highway near Campion College, ride out through Makaraka on SH2 over the Waiapoa Bridge to the round-about, turn right and continue past the Patutahi Golf Course and on out to Brunton's Rd, turn left onto Brunton's and continue through to the next intersection, another left hand turn and return back to the start/finish line.

Participants will be timed but it is not a race. The idea is to have a go and have fun.

The prize giving will be in the evening at the Cosmopolitan Club along with the main GWAloop prize giving. The first male and female will be acknowledged but the prizes are all lucky draws. You must be present to receive the prize/s.
